Why Hire Liz...

Here are 7 reasons to get Liz on your dance card for your next meeting...

1. Memorable and Engaging Presentation Style

Liz's use of dance as a dramatic teaching metaphor, combined with her powerful stage presence developed over a lifetime of being a performance artist, makes the delivery of her message unique, engaging, and memorable.

2. Experience

Liz has been helping her clients enhance the quality of their lives through her workshops and presentations since 1989. During that time she has helped thousands of people live with more purpose, more confidence, more focus, and have a more positive outlook on life.

3. Participants Love Her

Liz consistently receives excellent scores from participants on session feedback forms.

4. A Joy to Work With

Liz knows what it's like to work with prima donnas (literally) and she isn't one. Enough said!

5. Value Added

Liz loves to find ways to add value for her clients in unexpected ways. For one client, she arranged to interview the other presenters and have the audios posted on the conference web site as "teasers". It was the best attended conference they had ever had! What can she do for you?

6. Longevity

Liz has worked with some clients for a number of consecutive years, and they keep asking her back.

7. Flexibility

Liz is flexible. Yes, she can kick her leg up to her nose, but that is not what we meant. She wants to meet your needs as much as possible and can adapt and adjust when circumstances call for it. Just don't ask her to tap dance in pointe shoes.

OK, I know we said 7 reasons, but because Liz loves to over-deliver, here is one more reason to choose Liz...

8. Satisfaction Guaranteed

If for any reason you feel you did not receive the value you expected from your investment, you will not be billed for your keynote, breakout sessions or workshops.
