Annapolis Entrepreneur Honored by the Speaking Industry

Annapolis speaker and author, Liz Fletcher Brown, was recently named Member of the Year by the National Speakers Association DC Chapter.

Annapolis, MD July 10th, 2013 -- Local speaker and author, Liz Fletcher Brown, was named Member of the Year by the National Speakers Association DC Chapter at an award ceremony in June in Bethesda, MD.

The award is given annually in recognition of a member who has contributed significantly to the speaking profession and specifically to the chapter's success.

The National Speakers Association is the premier organization dedicated to those who speak professionally. It's members include experts in a variety of industries and disciplines, who reach audiences as speakers, trainers, educators, humorists, motivators, consultants, authors and more.

Fletcher Brown currently serves on the Board of Directors of NSA-DC and is the President Elect. She works with organizations (particularly in the healthcare industry) who want to find balance in the midst of chaos. Her expertise is work-life balance and dealing with change. She also teaches presentation skills to executives, managers and business owners who want to enhance their leadership presence.

Fletcher Brown said, "Receiving the Member of the Year Award is such an honor as it was bestowed on me by my peers. There are so many excellent and dedicated speakers in the Metro DC area." Her husband, Francis Brown, was also present at the award ceremony.

In addition to speaking and consulting, Fletcher Brown is also an award-winning author. Her most recent book is titled Full Wattage! A Practical Guide to Living an Engaging and Purposeful Life Worth Celebrating.

About Liz Fletcher Brown

After her first career as a professional dancer, Fletcher Brown went on to become a sought-after keynote speaker, workshop facilitator, author and life coach. As a thought leader in the field of personal transformation, she specializes in helping organizations (and the individuals who work for them) create work-life balance and deal with change in the midst of chaos.

When she was 21, Fletcher Brown moved from Scotland to New York City, to a country where she knew no one, to follow her dream of being a professional dancer. This adventuring spirit continues to motivate her today.
